- June 1, 2020 Managing Change and the Path to Becoming an Independent Organization
Albany
Albany, 31721
02:00 PM - 03:00 PM EST
Mary Ligon,
resources@alpleaders.org
Often, leadership programs are founded under the umbrella of a sponsoring organization as the need for business and civic leadership is identified as a significant weakness and/or opportunity for the community. As these leadership programs mature, they often find themselves inadequately resourced and underleveraged. This presentation highlights the transition of the New Orleans Regional Leadership Institute (NORLI) from under the umbrella of a partner organization into its own 501(c)(3) entity, and how to manage the changes, expectations, dynamics and challenges that board members and staff will face in becoming independent.

Virtual Leadership Programming: You CAN do it online

Go To Meeting Link info will be sent in the Registration Confirmation

02:00 PM - 03:00 PM EST

Mary Ligon,
resources@alpleaders.org

By now we've all used virtual platforms for online meetings, but how do we use these tools to create compelling virtual program days? How can we convert content that would have been in-person into something virtual that our participants will love? A panel of program managers will share how they have conducted interactive and immersive online content to keep our classes learning while we can't meet in person. We'll discuss session length, structure, creating content, and why our classes see these meetings as more than "just another zoom call."
