- Financial aid administrators are entrusted with significant responsibility, and industry certification affirms the professional commitment not only to those responsibilities, but also their commitment to uphold the highest ethical standards. NASFAA's FAAC® designation recognizes proficiency and encourages continuous growth and development in the financial aid profession.*
- Join us for the opportunity to help prepare for NASFAA's Certified Financial Aid Administrator® (CFAA) Program knowledge exam together, increasing your likelihood of success. At an in-person workshop hosted, participants will use a suite of workshop materials already prepared for you by a team of practicing financial aid administrators who hold the FAAC® designation. You will leave the workshop with greater confidence in their own readiness and knowledge of what to expect when they take the exam.*
- Workshop participants must have an approved certification application on file with NASFAA before they attend. Registered participants will receive a comprehensive set of preparation resources and complimentary access to the practice exam AND certification knowledge exam for their $195 registration fee (member rate), a $525 value.*
